GRACE COLLEGE

It was autumn, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and eighty. A humble group of vassals, summing nearly nine hundred, gathered together to begin a year of feasting on knowledge, bestowed from the nobility of the Kingdom of Grace.

One certain guild of scribes set upon the task of recording the history of the kingdom from that autumn until the following spring of nineteen hundred and eighty and one.

Herein lies that history including all events: feasts, activities of the royal arena, celebrated journeys, holidays, and ceremonies; as well as the subjects of the kingdom: lancers, nobility, vassals, guildsmen, jesters, minstrels, and all others which had a part in the kingdom.

This is the record, receive and reminisce.

Life in the Kingdom

Spiritual Life Week

Spiritual Life Week is an annual event at Grace College that students look forward to and enjoy. This year's speaker, Ken Poure of Hume Lake Christian Camps in California, challenged us with basic biblical truths we could apply in our own lives. Personal Christian growth was encouraged and many spiritual commitments were made.

Missions Conference

The 1979 Missions Conference featured Ian Hay as the keynote speaker. The theme, "Being Fitted Together" was taken from Ephesians 2:21, where Paul speaks of believers as parts of the temple of the Lord with Christ as our cornerstone, all growing together.

Bible Conference

The annual Grace Bible Conference was held on February 10-13th this year. During these four days, we were privileged to listen to such incomparable speakers as, Dr. Harold Lindsell, Dr. Jay Adams, Dr. Warren Wiersbe and Mrs. Sue Burnham, the special speaker for the Women's Conference. Over twenty sessions were held throughout the Conference including workshops, special messages and general sessions.

Days of Prayer

The fall and spring days of prayer provided a unique spiritual experience for both students and faculty. Christian brothers and sisters were drawn together into a bond of love. Chapel services and prayer times were held in the morning, and afternoon classes were cancelled to give students an opportunity for quiet times, personal prayer and Bible study.

Initiation

"I am a lowly freshman . . ." was the saying of the week early this fall during freshman initiation. The freshman class was awakened to the sound of banging on doors and yelling in the halls at five in the morning. Their daily routine consisted of putting on their clothes inside out and singing loudly. They were not allowed to use utensils in the cafeteria during their own special day. The annual Beanie Bowl was won by the sophomore class and the freshmen wore the traditional red and white beanies.

Beanie Bowl

Class Activities

The class activities helped bring excitement to the students while they came away from their studies. The activities included the Freshman class sponsoring Donkey Basketball, the Junior class bringing in the Imperials, and the Seniors sponsoring Slave Day, and Rip Your Roommate.

The Imperials

Homecoming

"Passport to Paradise"

Homecoming 1980 was highlighted with the crowning of Connie Whitcomb as homecoming queen. Her court was comprised of two Senior representatives, Lois Davis and Melinda Tom. Junior representative, Crystal "Nani" Duncan; Sophomore representative, Zerrin Crippen; and Freshman representative, Lyn Kelly. The theme this year was, "Passport to Paradise." The coronation was similar to that of a Hawaiian wedding. Dave Boyer was our special entertainer. SAB planned a beautiful banquet at Rodeheaver where Christine Wyrzten was the featured singer. Saturday's activities included a fantastic parade, soccer game, volleyball match, and cross country meet. The recipients of this year's Parents of the Year Award were Dr. and Mrs. William Walker, parents of Jan Walker.

Halloween

Halloween and hayrides are all part of the fun at Grace College in the fall. Each class had their own hayrides and all class members were encouraged to attend. Those who had never before been on a hayride were properly initiated in the hay by those who were experienced at such things. Halloween was an exciting night and was celebrated by the traditional "Trick or Treating" by students to the various dorms.

Turkey Tournament

Each year, over Thanksgiving, Grace College hosts the Annual Turkey Tournament. Colleges from the regional area send their basketball teams to vie for this coveted title. The participants this year included: Anderson, Bethel, Geneva, Grand Rapids Baptist, Manchester, Olivet Nazarene and Taylor. The teams played hard against each other for four days. Emerging as this year's winner was none other than our own Grace College. Way to go boys!

Christmas

Christmas was an exciting time on campus this year. Most of the classes got together and went caroling around town and then met afterwards for hot chocolate to warm up. Byer held its traditional Christmas Party and Alpha and most other dorms held their "door decorating" contest. The annual advent services provided students with an added spiritual blessing. Santa Claus was on hand to greet the guests at the Christmas banquet held at the Winona Hotel. Entertainment was provided by a student trio.

Nurses Capping

The capping ceremony for the Nursing Students marks an important step forward in their lives. It symbolizes that each student has successfully passed her basic Nursing Skills. Mrs. Uphouse was the speaker for the occasion. Upon receiving their caps, each student was presented a white nurses' Bible from the Gideons. This year's capping ceremony was the second held at Grace College, as this is a new field of study on campus.

Valentines Banquet

Friendship is special and what could be more appropriate than to celebrate friendship and love at a Valentine's Day Banquet. This enjoyable dinner was held at Peddler's Village in Goshen, Indiana. Couples and friends enjoyed dining with each other while being entertained by John and Diane Wendall.

Brother - Sister Dorm Parties

Each dormitory hall this year merged with a specific brother or sister hall in which they would plan activities and parties together. The parties varied from eating out in a nice restaurant, to playing games in the gym one night a week. These activities were not only a lot of fun, but were also a great way to build lasting relationships with our brothers and sisters in Christ.

Dorm Candida

Dorm life is a unique experience, only explainable by those who have "been there." Many of life's important lessons are learned in such settings. Upon graduating from college, most would agree it's good being away from the dorm, but the fact still remains that it was here where some of the happiest memories and closest friendships were made.

The Lamp

Bored? Tired of studying? Tired of sleeping? Make your way down to the Lamp for a fun-filled evening! Join your friends in a friendly game of pool, air hockey, foos ball, or ping pong. If your get up and go has left, how about a quiet evening watching television. And if you are among those who are hungry, delicious pizza and other foods are always served.

G-Club Banquets

G-Club Banquets are held once a semester to honor the male athletes with awards in their respective sports.

First Nurses Pinning

May of 1981 honored Grace College's first nursing class in an annual pinning ceremony. After two hard years of work, the ceremony symbolizes the attainment of their goal.

May Day

On May first, Grace College held it's annual May Day festivities. The theme this year was, "County Fair." Each club on campus sponsored a game booth. These booths were set up at noon and classes were dismissed for the day. We all enjoyed the academic relief! The highlight of the day was the crowning of the King and Queen of May Day, who reigned over the Day's festivities.

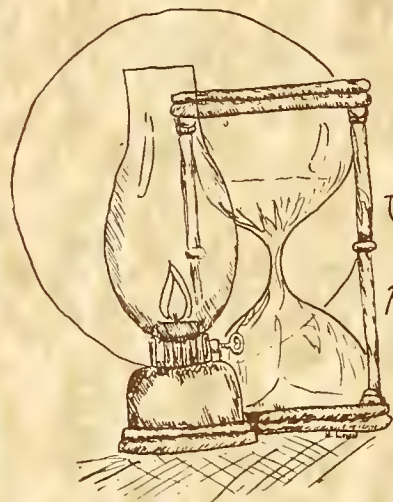

Brides Reception

The annual Brides Reception was held on April 30 and given in honor of brides-to-be in the coming year. The special feature of the evening was past brides showing their wedding dresses.

Top — Scott Miles, Dan Hentschel, Gary Robertson, Curt Donley, Tim Hawkins, Norm Lang (Coach). Kneeling — Rick Stewart, Dave Harper, Todd Lyvers, Rod Penrod, Steve Winter.

Cross Country

The 1980 Cross Country season can be adequately described as a year of improvement. Top runner, sophomore Dan Hentschel helped lead the Lancers to a 5-6 record. The introduction of a new course, provided a challenging run as well as ample spectator observation.

Varsity Soccer

The Lancer soccer team playing powerhouse teams began the season with a slow start. Defense was the main key to the team's strategy and was led by sophomore Andy Bonham with 202 clears.

Coached by Dave Diehl and assisted by Paul Henning, the team compiled a season record of 7-9-2. Putting in eight goals along with five assists, was forward Curt Critcher along with six goal Scott Bauer.

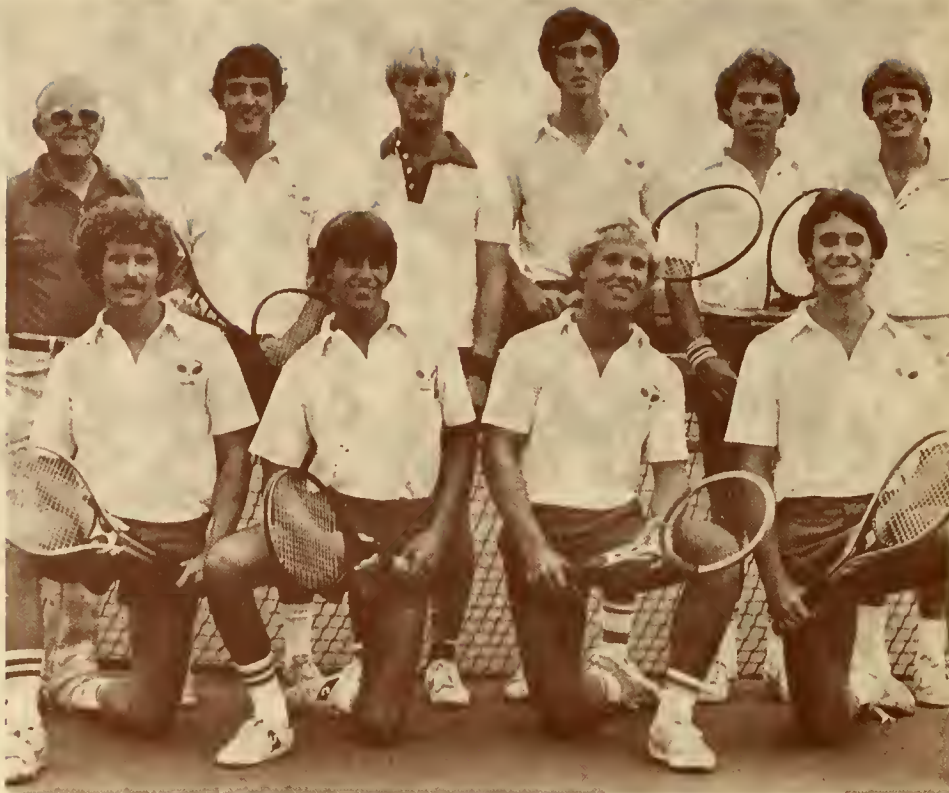

Receiving all NAIA District 21 honors were Steve Griffith and Scott Bauer. All NCCAA District honors went to Andy Bonham, Al Strong, and Scott Bauer.

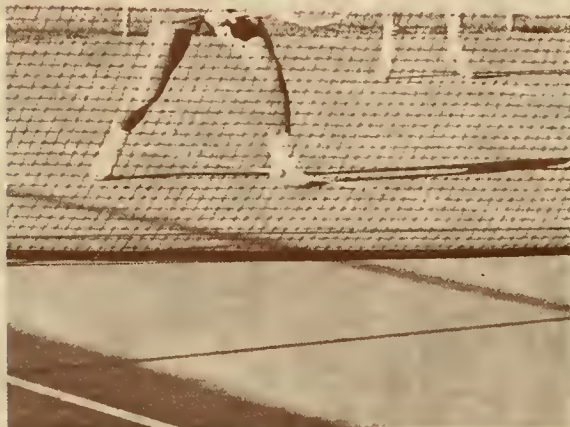

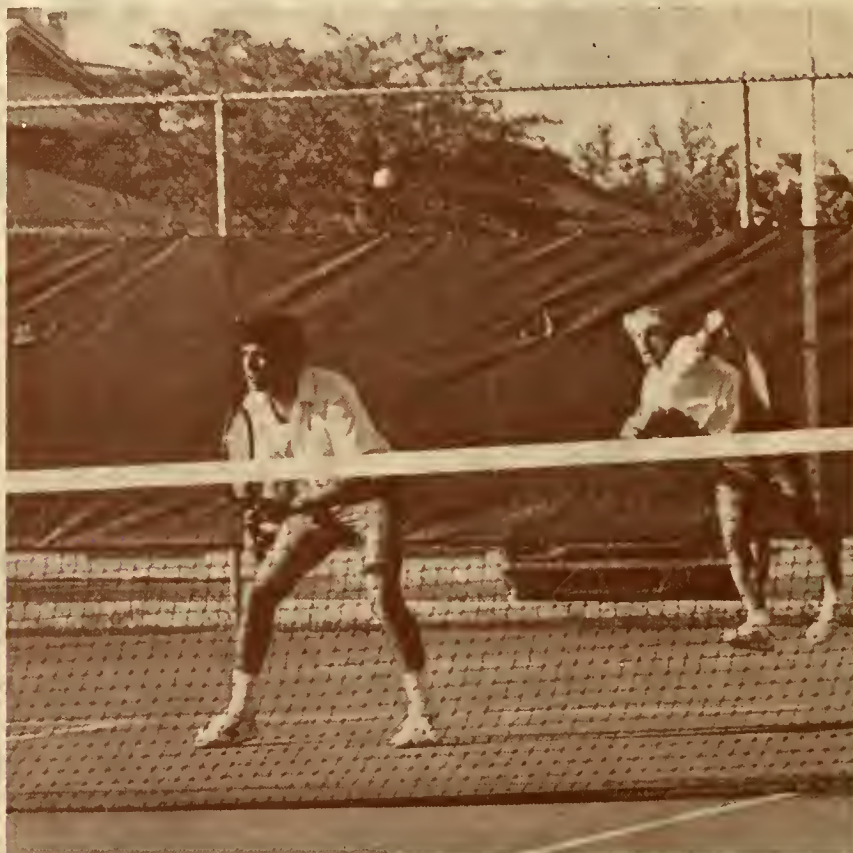

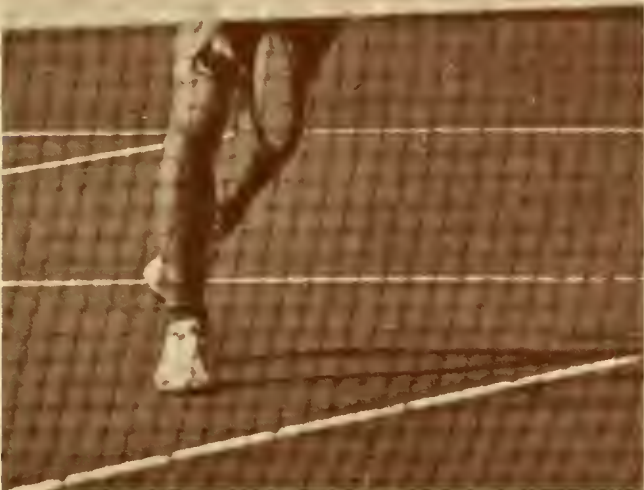

Tennis 1980

The Grace College Tennis Team, coached by Don Cramer, tallied another successful season in 1980, posting a fine 8-3 record and placing in the number four position at the NAIA district tournament. Two of Grace's losses were in the single's match. Bob Moore and Dan Heiser had an outstanding doubles season, working into the semi-finals of the NAIA and on to the all-district team. Much credit is due to Veteran coach Don Cramer and his eight years of winning seasons.

Volleyball

Women's Volleyball marked the best record in the history of the school with a winning season of 23-10. Besides having the best record in Division III, the women placed third in their IAAW State Tournament. Nan Hieb known for her steady back row play and smart offensive hitting was chosen as Division III all state first string. Two additional dimensions of the Grace offense were Seniors Kim Mauer with her center attack and Leisa Rude with her misleading left handed hits. Highlighting the season was the first annual trip to Conestoga College Invitational Tournament in Kitchner Ontario, Canada. The two day tournament ended with a first place trophy in the possession of the Grace Women. Opposing teams and coaches marveled at the outstanding defense built up by coaches Ivan Schuler and Roger Stover.

Women's Basketball

Led by Senior Leisa Rude and Sophomore Nan Heib, the Women's Basketball Team opened the season with high hopes and possibilities. Although the women did not experience a winning season, the ladies showed characteristics of high morale and willingness to learn under the coaching of Karen Miller. Because the team is dominated by underclassmen, allowance for future growth due to their inexperience in collegiate competition can be expected. Height being a definite disadvantage to the basically short team calls for a quick offense and defensive pressing.

Front row — Terri Schneider, Cathy Walter, Deb Synder, Trish Widder, Cheryl Waggoner, Joyce Wenger.

Because of strength and depth of the twelve man team, Coach Kessler could easily rely on his bench as well as his starters. Helping Coach Kessler was Assistant Coaches Ken Taylor and Larry Vaughn.

Thanksgiving break the Lancers won their seventh Turkey Tourney Classic championship by defeating Anderson. Over Christmas break the team travelled to the Pacific Northwest compiling a 5-2 mark against such powerhouses as the University of British Columbia and Central Washington University. Seniors Dave Henthorn and Jeff Kowatch served as team co-captains. Kimpy Sanders, also a senior, led the team with rebounds bringing down 254. Kevin Willour tallied 210 season assists and received the Turkey Tourney Most Valuable Player award.

Junior Varsity Basketball

Larry Vaughn brought together a winning 15-1 season with the Lancer Jayvee team. Building for the varsity squad is an objective of the team and such a record along with the outstanding talent shows proof of a successful program. Leading in rebounds was sophomore Kraig Doub; in points, freshman Trace McGeath; and assist, Lane Lewellan.

G-Club

Rhythmic pounds coming from the concession stand at home basketball games is just a part of G-Club's interest in the men's sports program. Spiritual support and enthusiasm is characterized by each of its varsity lettering members. The Turkey Tournery "turkey shoot" is sponsored by G-Club as well as all home game concessions. This year's club is headed by President—Scott Wilging; Vice-President—Steve Griffith; Treasurer—Steve Placeway; Secretary—Ken Sipe.

Lancer Varsity Club

Lancer Varsity Club is an organization of women who have participated in a varsity sport. Their goal is to promote fellowship among the athletes on Grace campus. Their activities included: selling concessions at soccer games, singing and testimonies in Dean's chapel, Bible studies and social events.

1980-81 officers were: President—Nancy Erb; Vice-President—Leisa Rude; Secretary—Sarah Gard; Treasurer—Trish Widder; Chaplain—Nannette Hieb. Lancer Varsity Club also sponsored the women's annual Sports Banquet.

Cheerleaders

Grace College cheerleaders took upon themselves the weekly task of arousing crowd enthusiasm and school spirit. Throughout the soccer and men's basketball season six ladies and six men followed the teams putting to use their various talents.

New choruses, mounts and skits made for eventful and fun filled games. Returning from last year were captain Carol Hrubik and Deb Schantz. Completing the squad were Sue Hill, Tammie Petro, Linda Gilmore and Cindy Thieme. Replacing Sue and Deb during second semester were Lorrie Morgan and Lyn Kelley. Captain Jeff Popplewell, Jeff Lukkes, Roger Stover, Scott Dennull, Tom Jacobson, and Rob Slagle were the male cheerleaders.

Let's Go

Pep Band

Dennis Herrick brought new talent and sounds to Grace's home basketball games by means of the pep band. Freshman Patti Gossman on the bass guitar in combination with the beat of the drums and the quality brass section kept the crowds excited and supportive. Much credit is given for the extra efforts put out by these dedicated students.

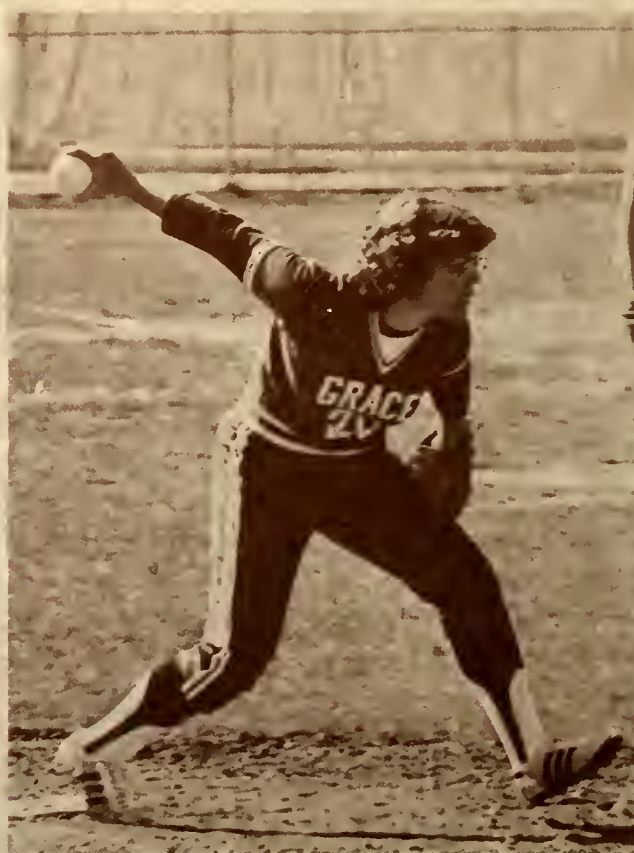

Women's Softball

Bad weather conditions brought on by rain caused many cancelled and delayed games. Kathy Otto and Sarah Gard represented the Lancer Softball team as the pitching staff. Third baseman Leisa Rude and shortstop Teri Schneider showed their talents by their outstanding field play and batting abilities. Coaching the softball squad was Karen Miller and assisted by Wes Heckman.

Na lii

Varsity Baseball

Track

Spring break brought an exciting vacation in Florida's sunshine for the eleven members who represented Grace. A win over University of Miami by two points made for an exciting meet. While visiting, the team performed and stayed in local churches.

Each team member took to task the challenge of combining individual effort as well as team unity to compile a winning 7-3 record. Grace sponsored the Grace Relays held at Wawasee High with Grace winning a second place trophy. A team goal of beating Marion was reached when Grace outscored Marion in two meets.

Golf

Graduation, marriage and transfers depleted the Lancer Golf team for the 1981 season. The five starters for the Lancers include: Gordon Kisler; a junior from Ft. Wayne, Ind. who averaged 88.5 this season and filled the number one spot. Terry Meads, a transfer from Port Huron, Mich. Tom Abbitt, a junior from Phoenix, Arizona; Dave Henthorn, a senior from Indianapolis, Ind.; and Jeff Lukkes, a sophomore from Kent, Wash. Although the 1981 season was short due to a late Spring break and rain outs, the time was used to gain experience.

Intramurals

Much time and dedication was devoted by Tom Abbitt, the 1980-81 Men's Intramural Director, to promote an outstanding program. The most popular sport being basketball was well attended and was won by Mark Foreman's team. Grace Courts/Out-of-dorm took the first place in volleyball and Beyer/Gamma C marked up a victory in softball.

An All-Star basketball team went to Huntington and brought back first place trophies. Bryan Smith, Dan Hentschel, John McKinnley, Rex Durham, Tim Boal, Mark Whitacre, Terry Meads, Dave Routledge, and Keith Denlinger were led by coach Tom Abbitt. Mark Whitacre received the outstanding intramural player of the year by showing active interest and spiritual leadership while participating in all three organized sports.

TEN little indian boys going out to dine, one choked his little self, and then there were nine.

Nine little indian boys stayed up very late,
one overslept himself, and then there were eight.

Eight little indian boys, travelling through devon, one got left behind, and then there were seven.

Seven little indian boys, out cutting sticks, one chopped himself in half, then there were six.

Six little indian boys playing with a hive,
a bumble bee stung one, and then there were five.

Five little indian boys, going in for law,
one got in chancery, and then there were four.

Four little indian boys, going out to sea,
a red herring swallowed one, then there were three.

Three little indian boys walking in the zoo,
a big bear hugged one, and then there were two.

Two little indian boys sitting in the sun,
one got frizzled up, and then there was one.

One little indian boy, left all alone,
he went and hanged himself, then there were none.

Concert & Lecture Series

A broad range of distinct musicians and renowned speakers were brought to Grace College campus by the 1980-81 Concert and Lecture Series. Among this year's guests were Kings Brass, John and Carolyn Nordquist, Mary Dombek, Dr. Larry Crabb, Dr. James Greer, Dan Lidster, Fort Wayne Chamber Orchestra and Chorus, Dean Wilder and Cedarville College Symphonic Band.

Women's Glee Club

Predominately comprised of freshmen and a few upper classmen, this newly organized group of women minister with a combination of sacred songs and the ringing of hand bells. Under the direction of Mrs. Ethel Anderson, the group will be traveling on a weekend to Ohio during second semester.

String Ensemble

The String Ensemble provided various campus and community organizations with classical and chamber music. This eight-piece ensemble is under the direction of Ethel Anderson. Their relaxed style communicated such composers as Bach and Handel without omitting their classical beauty and purity.

Resounding Brass

Resounding Brass (formerly Dimensions in Brass), is a band comprised of twenty musicians. They play all brass instruments with the exception of drums and the accompaniment of one singer. During the school year, they performed every other weekend in the local area. Over Winterim in January, they toured and performed in Florida.

Wind Symphony

Musical statements are created as Wind Symphony worships with instruments and praises with sound. Dedication and perseverance during countless hours of rehearsal provided the performers with practical musical experience while refining their innate abilities and talents. Discipline, musical and academic, are the tennets on which the group is based. The essence of Christianity permeates their performances before civic and social groups.

Sound Investment

Bringing their musical abilities from California, Florida, Ohio, Indiana, South Carolina, Colorado, Michigan, Pennsylvania and Illinois, this year's members came together during the first weeks of school to form a group called Sound Investment. Having spent many hours rehearsing, refining their harmony and practicing new music, their first performance in Berrien Springs, Michigan, was the beginning of many musical engagements. This led them to cities in Indiana such as Fort Wayne, Syracuse, North Webster and Peru. Their spring tour took them to eastern states. Sound Investment is under the direction of Bryce Inman, a 1978 graduate of Grace College.

Dave Guiles, Kathy Hathaway, Anne Deane, Steve Makofka

Common Bond

This musical quartet comprised of sophomores and juniors with the accompaniment of a pianist sing an assortment of compositions, ranging from traditional to contemporary music. In January the group had the privilege of singing at a District Youth Retreat in Pennsylvania. Common Bond is under the direction of Dave Guiles.

Concert Choir

The 1980-81 Grace College Concert Choir toured Virginia; West Virginia; Washington, D.C.; Ohio and Pennsylvania during Winterim, under the direction of Professor Ogden. Their tour was an unforgettable experience. It was a time of sharing, caring and seeing Christ work in the lives of others. Above all, Christ was honored and glorified, in music and testimony.

Freshman Choir

The Freshman Choir, composed of thirty members, is under the direction of Professor Ogden. During the school year they perform in churches around the local area. Over spring break they toured Michigan and Ohio.

Front Row — Geneva Regier, Julie Weidman, Laurie Griffin, Jean Martin, Lonnie Taylor, Cena McMaster. Second row — Jayne Straley, LeeAnn Huff, Deb Moyer, Tim Yocum, Kirk Barger, Lynn Gibbons, Daune Bishop, Sue Shickley. I don't think anyone will appreciate this staff of hard workers as much as I do. I give them much credit for a job well done. Wini led this group thru a busy year and we still ended it liking each other.

Thank you, 1981 "Children of the Kingdom"
